Presenting the

1959 Summit,

dedicated to

Chester High School

*It is an average
High school, and yet there
Are those who love it because*

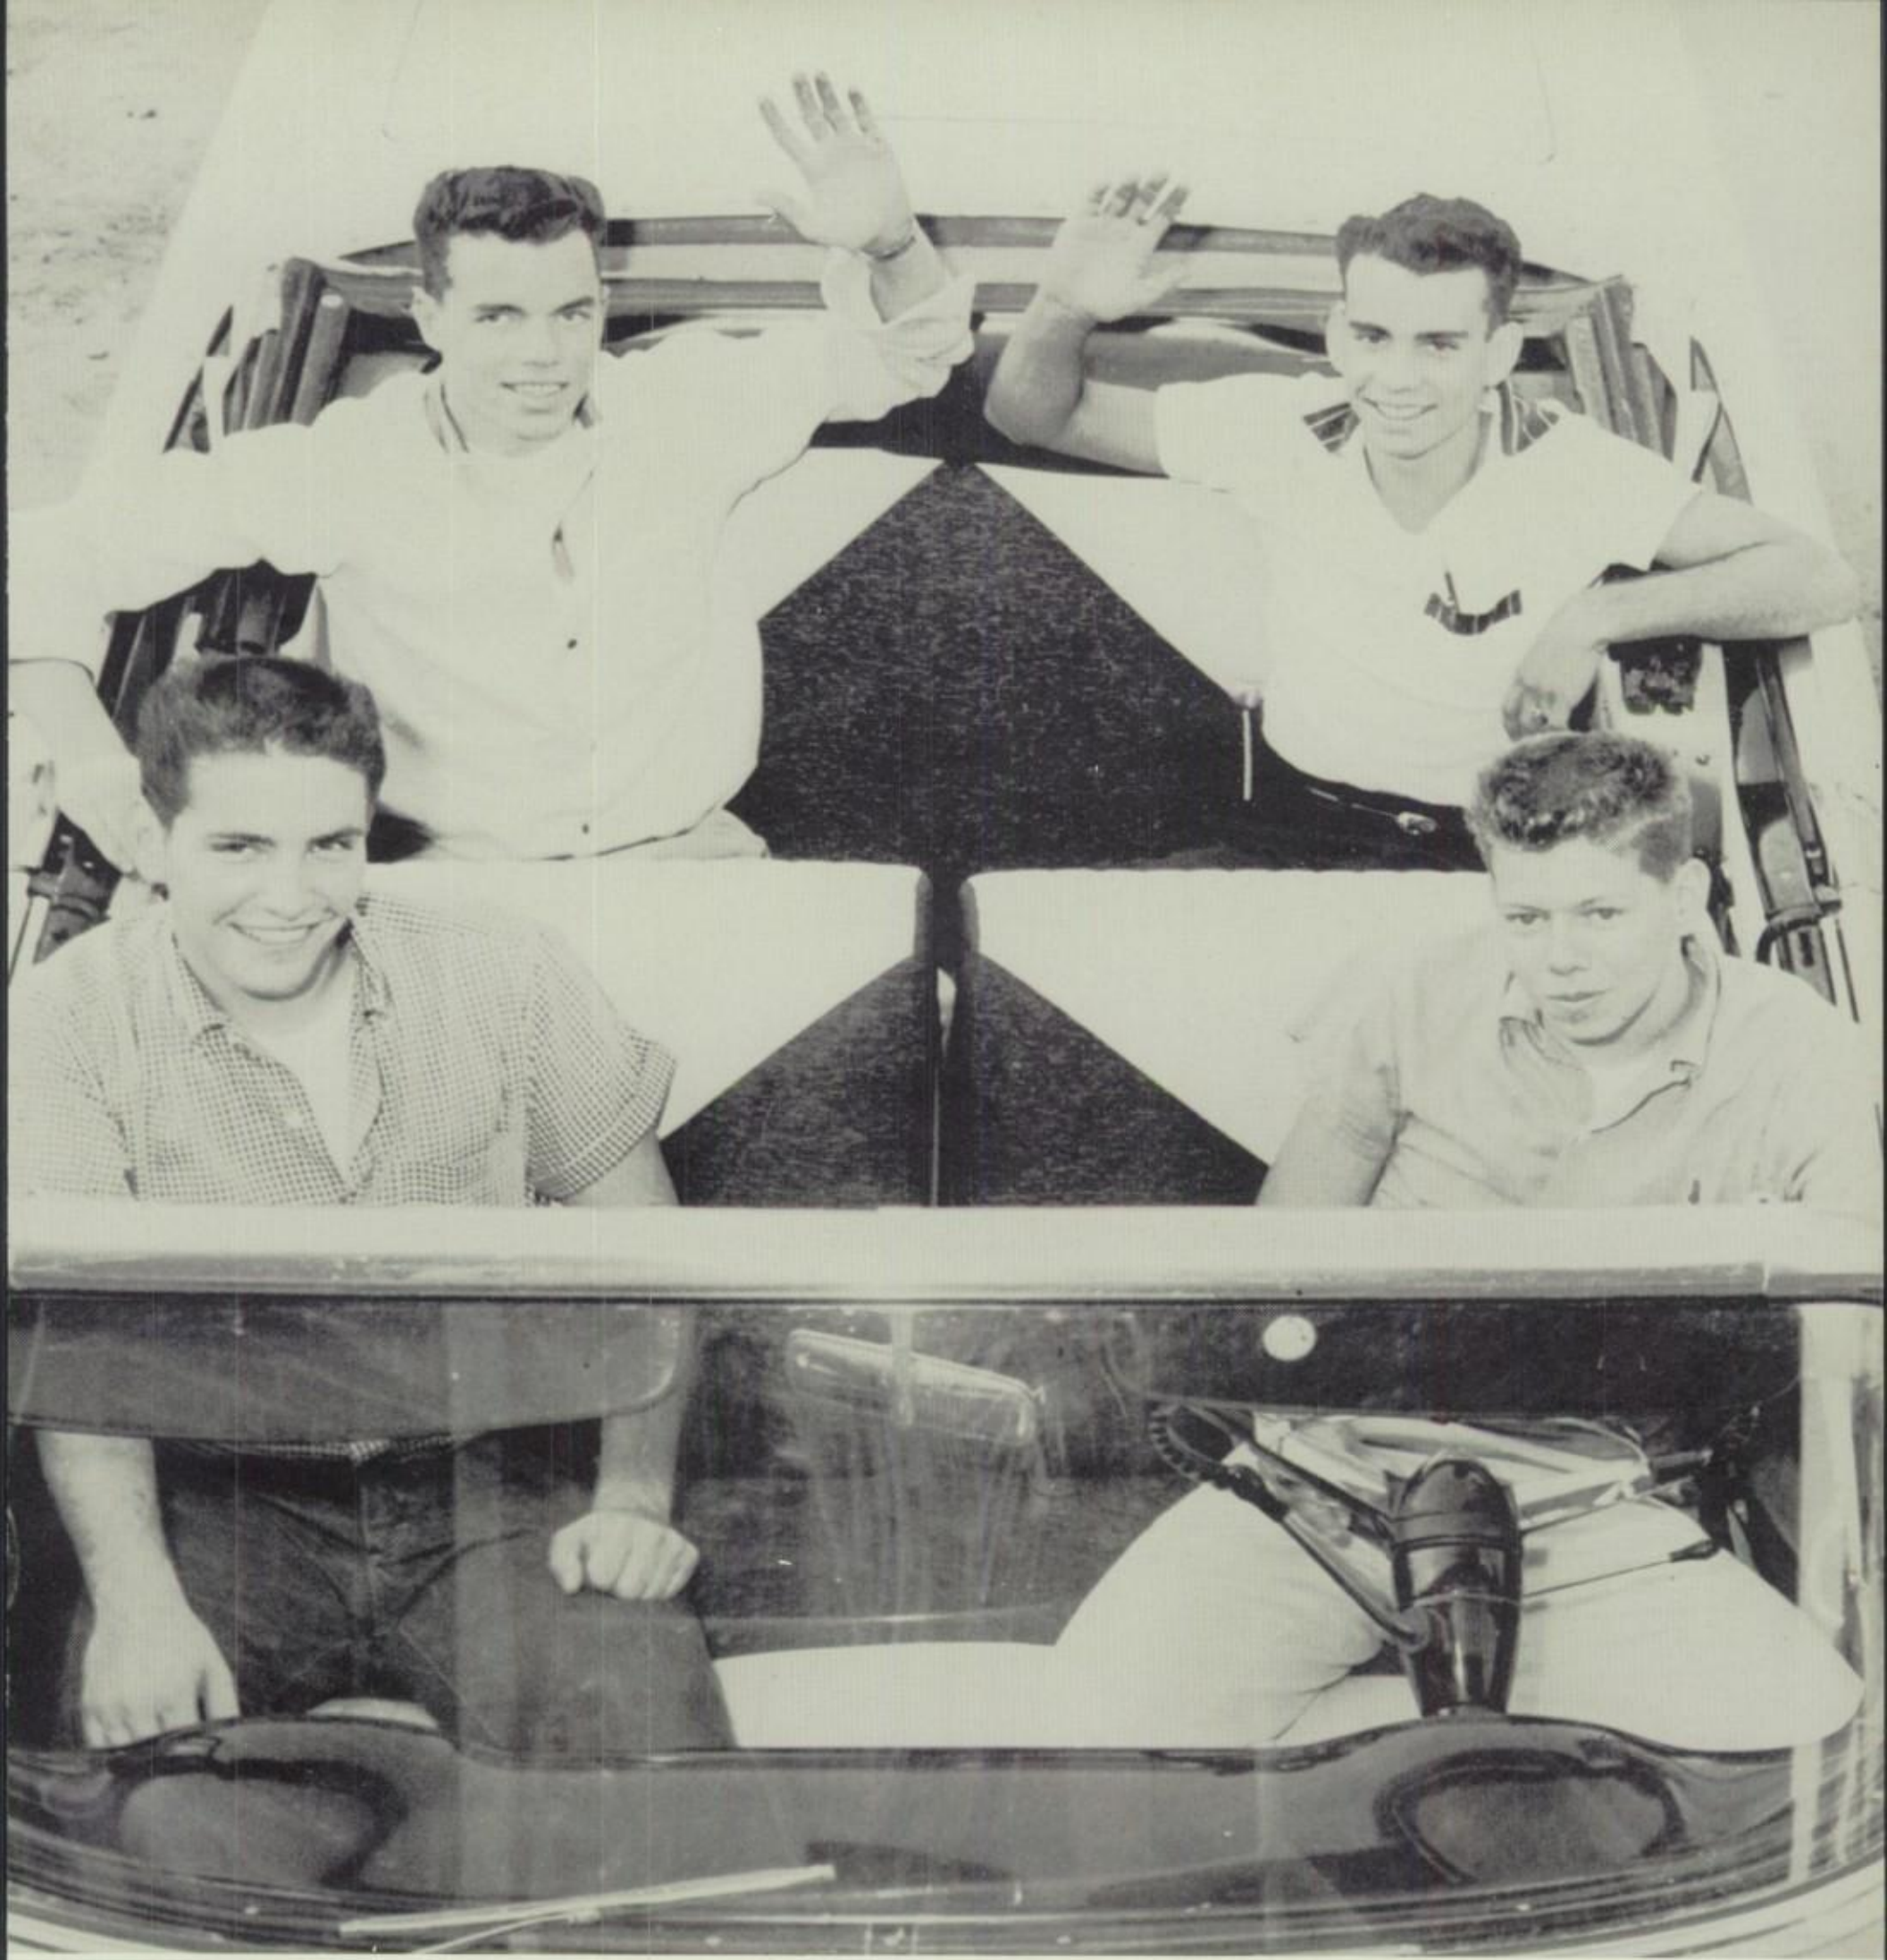

It's Informative

It's Interesting . . .

It's Difficult

It's Fun

It's Serious

It's Exciting . . .

We pause to pay tribute to

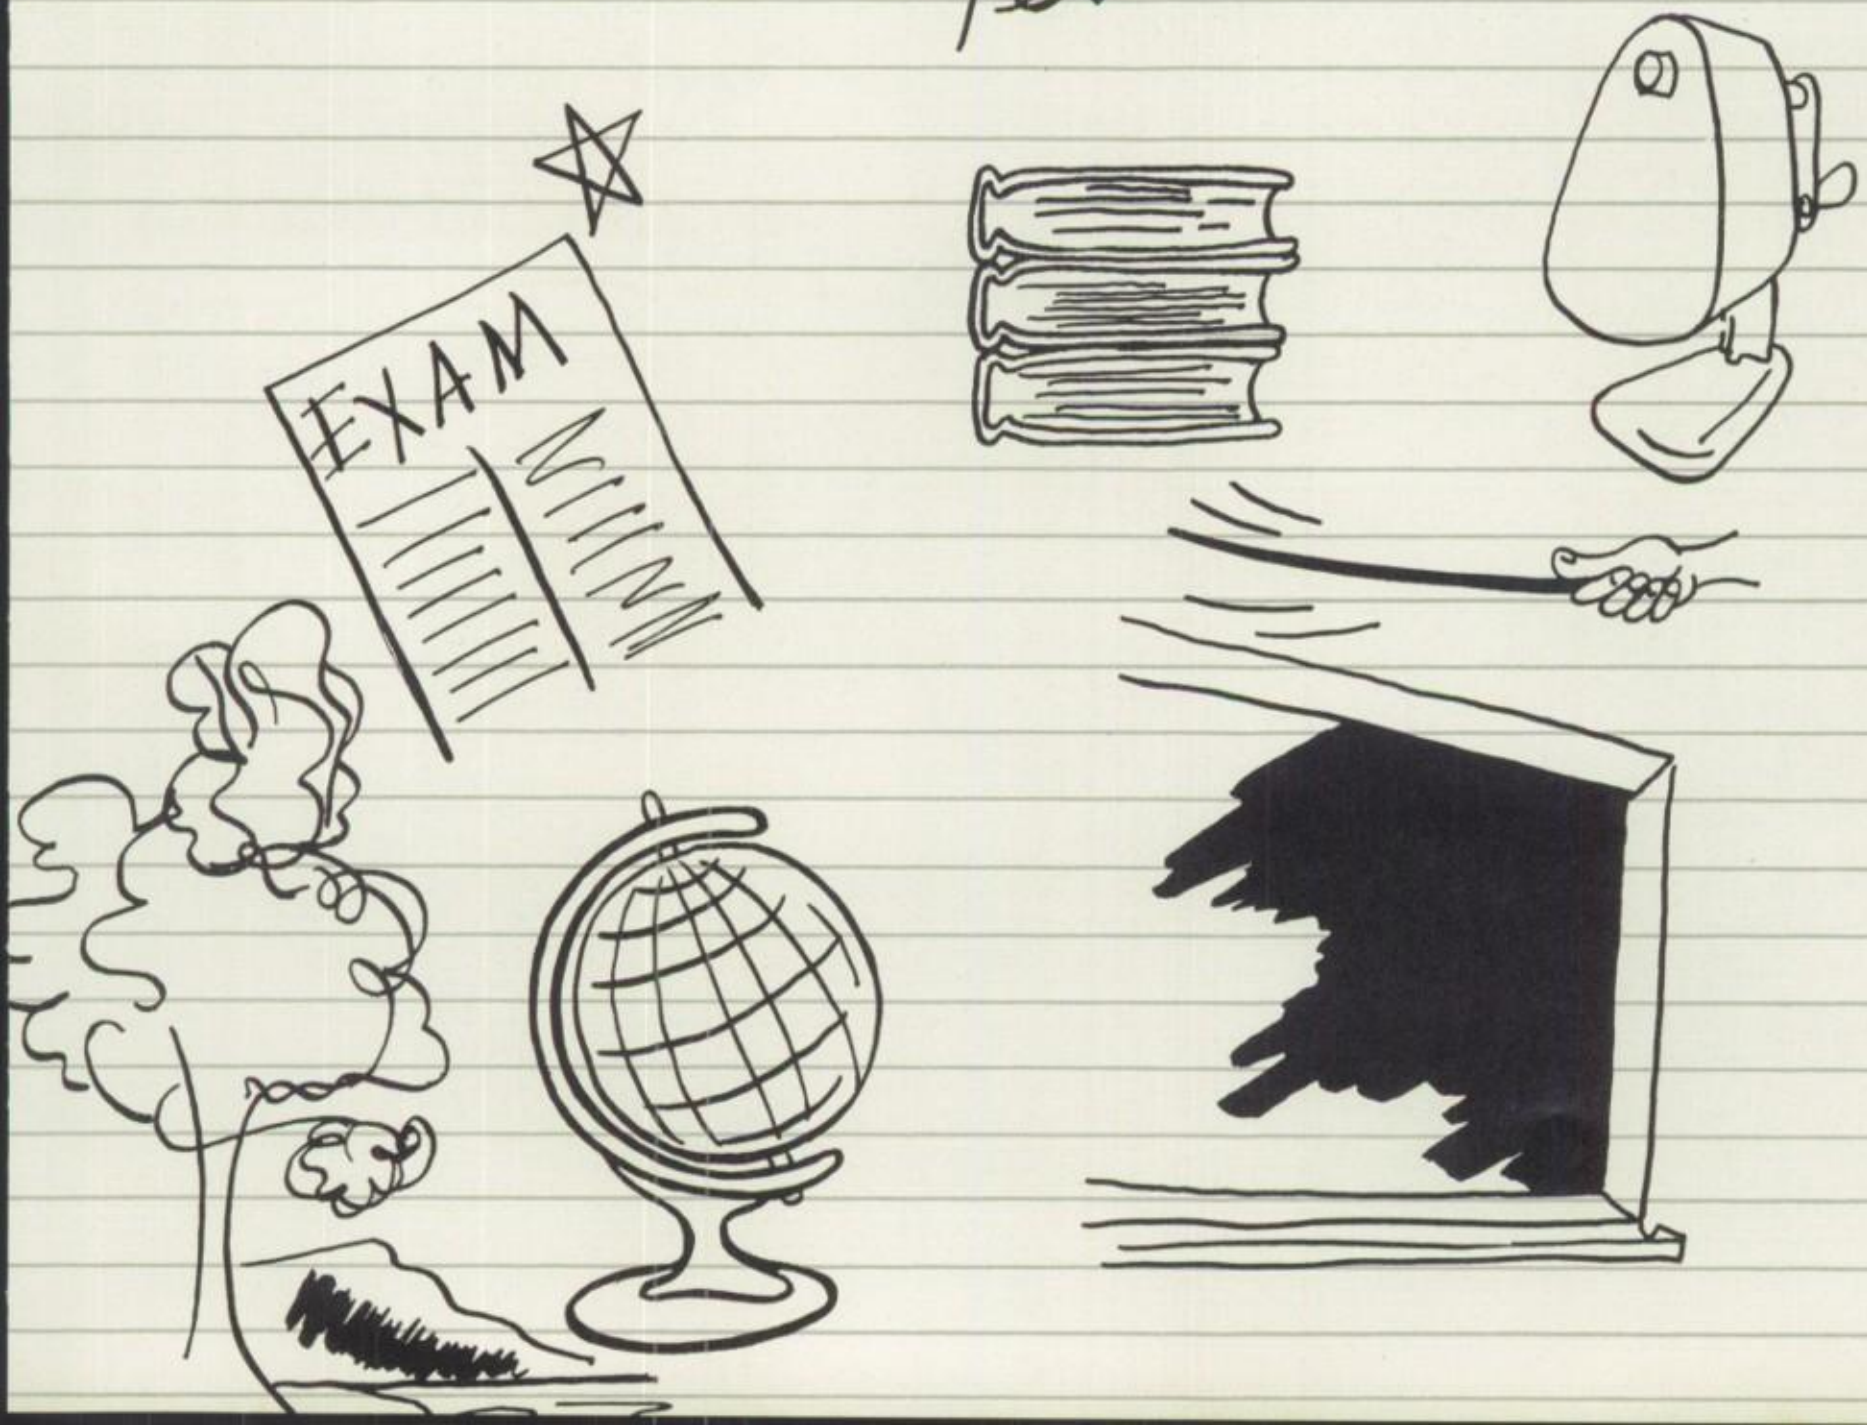

NED F. CARLTON--teacher, scholar, and respected citizen. A native of Randolph County, Mr. Carlton has served the schools of this area for more than three decades, first as a rural school teacher, later as a city superintendent of schools, and finally as County Superintendent of Schools.

The members of the 1959 SUMMIT STAFF are indeed happy to give Mr. Carlton public recognition for his many years of meritorious service.

~~Faculty~~

Vice-President	Janet Colvis
Secretary	Nancy Hoppe
Treasurer	Judy Guthman
Reporter	Norma Tudor
Parliamentarian	Linda Dethrow
Historian	Virginia McAdams
Sponsor	Vivian Eggers

The F. H. A. is made up of the girls who have taken or are taking Home Economics. They work for improvements in the home and the community. In the past, the F. H. A. has been co-sponsor of an all-school dance.

Future Farmers of America

President	Leo Shemonic
Vice-President	Dale Gross
Secretary	Bill Gray
Treasurer	Rudy Hartman
Sentinel	Richard Adams
Reporter	Roy Seymour
Advisor	Mr. Best

The Future Farmers of America is an organization to train young men in the field of agriculture. Each year crops are grown on a farm operated by the boys. Meetings are held monthly and the boys obtain sufficient training with hope of future farming.

Radio Club

President	Joe Goggin
Vice-President	Roger Stallman
Secretary-Treasurer	Dave Seymour
Sponsor	Elliot Reiman

The Radio Club meets once a month at school and about once a week outside of school. The club talks over radio to people all over the country. They also build different things, study and practice codes, and do many other interesting things in the study of electronics.

Building Trades

The Building Trades program was started a few years ago and is at present supervised by Oda Sitzes, the faculty advisor. This organization is made up of juniors and seniors who have taken industrial arts each year since entering high school. They build a complete house every two years and sell it, the proceeds of which pay for the next house built by the Building Trades class. The boys in this organization are always ready to help build or repair anything which is necessary.

The Rhythm Rascals, the high school dance orchestra, was fortunate enough to have the privilege of playing at the County Teachers' Meeting in October. Soloists who sang with the Rhythm Rascals at that time were Joyce Asbury and Bill Berndt. The participants all enjoy playing in the orchestra, which is an organization consisting of band members who volunteer or ask to be a member.

Look at him go!!!!

Wonder what they're saying.

What's she dangling???

Phew!!

Team without a basketball.

This car will never be the same!!!!

What's going on here???

News, of course.

She must be thirsty!

Just thinking.

Another famous sock-hop.

Future ballerinas???

What time did you say it was?

The line-up.

Heh-heh-heh!

Huh??

"Shut-up, Wally!"

Once upon a time-----

Smoking at their age!!!

"We're sailin' the S. S. Popeye."

Hey! Watch where you're going!!!

Explain that please!!

Strange-looking characters.

What in the world- - - -

Talented, aren't they?

Hey! Watch that!

What? No Shoes!?!?

Hello, Wide-Eyes!

Where's everyone going?

What's that you said???

Snowman with a real head!

"Stick 'em up!"

Not tired----just exhausted.

This is swimming?!!

WOW!!

Do you always eat lemons?

This couldn't be ???

Some people are odd!

Why aren't you sleeping?
